A SUCCESSFUL MUSICAL.

The musical recital given by Mrs. Florence Covey Benedict, at the Epworth League room last night for the benefit of the League, was well attended and all present enjoyed a splendid musical treat. Mrs. Benedict was assisted by her husband and Mr. Sidney Meyer, who rendered a very pleasing violin solo. The recital was a success in every way.

WILL WED TONIGHT.

Tonight at the residence of Dr. Haynes, Miss Irma Haynie and R. Y. Haynes of this city will be united in marriage. The wedding was to have taken place at Chapel Hill, but on account of an accident which occurred to Mr. Haynes he was unable to go after his bride, so she came to him. Miss Haynie is a handsome young lady and appears very refined and accomplished. She is accompanied by her sister, Miss Florence Haynie, her mother and her uncle, Rev. H. M. Haynie. Mr. Haynes is one of the nicest young men in Beaumont, and The Daily Enterprise joins his many friends in extending congratulations.

NELSE ALLEN DEAD.

Nelse Allen, the negro who was shot in the affray Monday night, died at the charity hospital about 12 o'clock. At noon today the Italian, who was stabbed at the same time, was resting easy, but his condition was very serious.

CHANCE FOR RECOVERY DOUBTFUL.

Bill Perry, Dr. Haynes' colored driver, who was shot night before last, is still alive and was resting well this evening, but Dr. Haynes says his chances for recovery are very slender.

GETTING ALONG NICELY.

Henry Ezernack, the Kay See brakeman who was injured yesterday while attempting to make a coupling, had his arm amputated this morning at the Sisters' hospital. The last report received from there was that he was resting easy.

In another column will be found the announcement of the appointment of Everett M. Weiss as business manager of the Interstate Lumberman. Mr. Weiss has been connected with The Daily Enterprise for the past three years, and has proven his responsibility, and though a young man, he has shown business judgment that could do credit to a much older man. His duties on The Daily Enterprise will in no way interfere with his new work.

The Beaumont Steam Laundry is making some changes in their building which will give them more room and better facilities.

THE COUNTY COURT.

In the county court this morning the case of Levi Luke, who is charged with staking horses on enclosed lands of another, was tried. He was fined $10 and costs.

The case of Ash McCormack was on trial at the time of going to press. McCormack is charged with a similar offense.

SUED.

J. B. Albright et al. have filed suit against A. DeLaune et al. The suit is for partition of lands, which amount to $44,280. The suit was filed with District Clerk Boykin this morning.

A REAL PLEASURE.

Lovers of music are assured an evening of real pleasure Friday night at the opera house, when the leading members of the Beaumont Dramatic club, assisted by the Constellation orchestra, will appear for the benefit of the library fund of the Young People's Society of the Christian church. The program will consist of entirely new musical and character sketches and conclude with H. Elliott McBride's uproariously funny farce, "A Red Job."

LAI'D TO REST.

All that was mortal of George Allen was laid to rest this morning in Magnolia, the beautiful city of the dead. The love and respect in which he was held was testified to by one of the largest funeral corteges ever seen in Beaumont. The services at the cemetery were conducted by Rev. J. W. Hicker, pastor of the Episcopal church, assisted by the full robed choir of St. Mark's.

TOO MANY GREERS.

Judge Hal Greer, one of the election officials of the First ward, told a good story this morning while discussing the working of the new election methods. Judge Greer said that the new law was just the thing and that it wiped the ward healer out and made clean elections. As to the story, he said that a colored man, who could not read, came in and he went to the booth to assist him. Judge Greer read the names of the different candidates and the colored man told him who to scratch. When it came to aldermen in the Third ward the names of the three candidates were read to him and he asked: "Who is Chariton?" On being told that he was a working man he said he would vote for him. Then Judge Greer explained that he could vote for two candidates and the names of Wyche Greer and L. F. Chester were read to him. "Scratch off dat man Greer," said the colored voter, "dem Greers are getting too thick around here." Of course the voter did not know that he had asked Judge Greer to scratch off the name of his son, or the result might have been different.

HE SEES HIS FINISH,

and notes the difference between that laid on by our perfect methods and what he receives from others who have not made an art of their work as we have, when a man takes his linen to any other laundry but the BEAUMONT. Don't bother with second class laundries and have your fabrics rotted by chemicals and your linen frayed, when you will receive perfect satisfaction at the Beaumont Steam Laundry.
